

Assoc. Prof. Dr. Nguyen Ba Quang

President – Vietnam Acupuncture Association
Former Director – National Hospital of Acupuncture, Vietnam
Chairman of the Training Council - National Hospital of Acupuncture, Vietnam

Professional Biography

Associate Professor Nguyen Ba Quang is one of the leading specialists in acupuncture and traditional medicine in Vietnam, with nearly four decades of clinical practice, academic contribution, and professional leadership. Professional work focuses on the clinical application of acupuncture in neurological rehabilitation and the treatment of musculoskeletal disorders.

Former Director of the National Hospital of Acupuncture, one of the most important national institutions specializing in acupuncture and traditional medicine in Vietnam. Academic activities also include medical education and professional training through contributions to the Vietnam University of Traditional Medicine.

Particular expertise includes acupuncture therapy for neurological disorders and rehabilitation medicine. Clinical work has contributed to the development and implementation of acupuncture treatment protocols widely applied in traditional medicine hospitals in Vietnam.

Clinical and Research Expertise

- Acupuncture therapy for neurological disorders
- Rehabilitation after stroke
- Treatment of facial paralysis (Bell's palsy)
- Management of musculoskeletal pain and spinal disorders
- Treatment of cervical and lumbar disc herniation
-

International Academic Activities

Active participation in national and international scientific conferences on acupuncture and traditional medicine, academic cooperation programs, and professional activities within the Vietnam Acupuncture Association.

These activities contribute to strengthening academic exchange and promoting international collaboration in acupuncture and traditional medicine.

Areas of Academic Interest

- Clinical application of acupuncture in neurological diseases
  - Rehabilitation medicine in traditional medicine practice
  - Acupuncture treatment for musculoskeletal and spinal disorders
  - Development of acupuncture treatment protocols
  - Integration of traditional medicine with modern rehabilitation approaches
-

International Contributions

Professional activities and leadership roles contribute significantly to the development of acupuncture medicine in Vietnam and to strengthening international cooperation in traditional medicine. Contributions include promoting clinical research, supporting professional training, and encouraging academic exchange in acupuncture and rehabilitation medicine.

Keynote Profile

Associate Professor Nguyen Ba Quang is widely respected for extensive clinical experience and leadership in acupuncture medicine in Vietnam. Keynote presentations focus on acupuncture therapy for neurological rehabilitation, treatment of musculoskeletal disorders, and the development of clinical acupuncture protocols in traditional medicine.